We get a lot of requests for large quantities of various items with a very short window for delivery. Few companies nowadays bring in massive numbers of stock – they forecast carefully to avoid overstock issues. Typically there is a 90 lead time for 5000 of something. So it pays to plan ahead. However, if there is a request for 800–1200 of an item, there's a good chance we can assist with that. Items with immediate availability and good stock are shown below.
